FMG invites you to join us for a Liability Seminar

We would be thrilled to invite you to a seminar dedicated to identifying liability trends and offering risk-based advice derived from real claims data and expertise.

The seminar will begin with a brief discussion on the importance of coverage, followed by an in-depth exploration of risks, products, claims, and real-life examples.

Our aim is to provide information to better protect your staff, your family, and yourself.

Join us from 1:00pm for a cuppa and a bite to eat with the discussion to commence at 1:30pm.
